2. 3.9.2008 Heard.

The allegation is that the petitioners and others administered poison to the deceased by force.

The contention is that in fact the deceased was disgusted with his wife and as such he committed suicide by some tablets of sulphas and as soon as his condition was deteriorated and it was detected by his family members and neighbors as also the informant the deceased was shifted to Banaras and he died there during treatment and accordingly a Panchnama of natural death was prepared there which is Annexure-2 and the same bears the signature of the informant as well.
